

The parents of the two students included in this Newsletter possess magnanimity, a great spirit of generosity noticeable in how they step aside so that the spotlight shines on their gifted children. In doing so, they model big-heartedness. It's a grace that comes from God, who is guiding the considerable talents of their children to wholeness. I am deeply honored to spotlight Isabella Roman and John Cooney in this Newsletter.

THE SPECTACULAR ISABELLA ROMAN St. Katherine of Siena School

Isabella Roman is currently an 8th-grade student at St. Katherine of Siena. Isabella has been a part of the junior band at Archbishop Ryan High School since 4th grade. Over these past few years, Isabella became a part of the Ryan community and hoped to spend her high school years at Archbishop Ryan. Isabella was accepted into Archbishop Ryan and earned a Music Scholarship as well as the Presidential Scholarship. In December, we were notified that Isabella was also awarded the Neumann Scholarship. As Isabella's parents, we are overjoyed with all her accomplishments so far. Isabella is excited about the opportunities that the Neumann Scholarship and Archbishop Ryan will provide her over the next four years.

JOHN COONEY: A FORMER STUDENT SHINES LIKE A STAR

About 5-6 years ago John had the pleasure of attending your high school prep class. It was a success in various ways but that success has continued even after 4 years of high school and now as a freshman in college.

John graduated from Archbishop Ryan in 2022 with first honors and was an honors student all four years there. He was VP of Tri-M honor society, president of a club and offered scholarships to numerous universities, including Notre Dame.

John locked in on Liberty University as a sophomore and it became his mission to attend after high school. He has been granted several scholarships at Liberty (LU), enrolled in the School of Music and Worship at LU. With his first semester now complete John has made the Dean's List.

His major is Guitar Performance and he intends to minor in Creative Writing. There have been many positive contributing factors to his successful journey thus far, and we are thankful for all of them, big and small. We know that your classes have helped in some way in this journey.

Just wanted to share some good results with you as all of us can use encouragement in our professional and private lives. Keep doing what you do... you make a difference!

God bless you Dr. Pace.

-Mr. John Cooney, John's Father
